CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF HEALTHY LIVING

Very busy weekend at the ski park. Read the news below...

Luncheon at Don's Den - Sunday, Feb. 4th:

Yes, its a go and your invited! Leave chalet at 11:00AM. Ski or snow show into Don's Den for a feed of homemade baked beans and buns which will be available from 11:30-12:30. Afterwards, you can continue skiing or snow shoeing, if your involved with Jack Rabbit, loads of time to return to chalet. If interested, please sign your name on the sheet in chalet. Georgina and Doug need to know number attending so that there will be lots of grub. Baked beans and home made buns...might be the carrot to attract Dan and Betty from LBI!

Candle Snow Shoe - Final Notice

Yes, its a go and your invited! 7:00PM, Saturday, Feb. 3rd. Lori has done a fine job getting things in place. Heard 60 visitors are expected! Be there or be square.

Provincial Masters - Feb. 10-11

Yes, its one week away. Was in the chalet yesterday and Wanda Wheeler was in a panic. "Too late to register?" she asked. After a brief chat, she relaxed and signed up for the 10 km free style on Sunday. Off she went out on the trails with a big grin on her face.

Jack Rabbit Leaders in Training

Congratulation to our Jack Rabbit Leaders who will be taking the ICC course this Saturday. Big THANK YOU to Megan Ryland for organizing the clinic for our leaders. Nice to see our leaders keeping pace and staying in the know. In case your wondering, Geri Graham from BMD will be delivering the session.

Beginner Classic Ski Lesson on Saturday/Beginner Skate Lesson on Sunday

Here is the scoop...on Saturday the classic lesson will be held from 1:00PM - 2:30PM.

On Sunday, skate lesson will be held from 11:00AM-12:30PM. If you really progress with your skill development, you may have time to ski to Don's Den for a feed of beans!

Meet at chalet both days.

Any questions, contact Graham Oliver.

Chalet Volunteers - Please note

Plans are falling in place for a 3 hour training session on AED, Role of chalet attendant and an inservice on running a snowmobile. Will be talking to Gerry Clarke over the weekend to set a date. No stress, Gerry promised that he'll leave his over head projector at home. Stay tuned.

PWC Update

As of Thursday evening, total tally on kms skied/snow shoed is 8000+. This is taking off!! How nice is it when you covered 50 kms and enter a tick on the chart??

I have seen the smiling faces. Keep on moving...Don't let rain dampen your goal.

CCNL Ticket Stubs

Did you know the draw is 1 month away?? Yes, that is correct...right after the Marathon Banquet on March 3rd. Thank You to those members who have turned in their ticket stubs. Big help...many hands make for a lighter load.

Snow mobile update

Did you hear the news? Kenny went out last week to fire up the Skandic and guess what happened...the battery wouldn't bat, the wipers wouldn't wipe and the pistons wouldn't _____!

On a more serious note, one of our snowmobile needed a few repairs...bill might run us up to $500.00. Oh my. Did I hear someone say they need more CCNL tickets??

News that just made the deadline...

It is hoped that Marathon registration will be up and running this Monday. Stay tuned. Did you know that if you register for the Marathon by Feb. 24th, you'll receive a 10% discount! Now how good is that.

Happy Trails
