Where did we lose the 2%?

If you followed the last edition of Whaleback Times, you must have taken note of our report card...I stated that the Whaleback Ski Club scored 98% in its overall performance last weekend as indicated in a telephone survey carried out by Tourism NL. The telephone has been ringing off the wall from members wondering where did we lose the 2%...how come we didn't score 100%, members asked?

Its a hard one to swallow...it just so happened that on Sunday, during Jackrabbit session, Linda was stoking up the fire ensuring the chalet was heated when the little ones finished their session. While she was doing that, she drove a splinter in her little finger and said the S_ _ _ word.

I'm sorry, I had to report this in the telephone survey...maybe next year we'll reach top shelf!

Classic Lesson #3 on Sunday

Yes, its true, Graham is taking "students" for another introductory classic lesson at 1:30PM. Jackrabbit parents, members and nonmembers are welcome. Come along and brush up on your skills.

Fees are as follows:

Non members: $15.00 if you have your ski equipment; $20.00, if you require ski equipment

Members: $5.00

Jackrabbit parents: no charge.

New Etiquette Sign

Please take note of the new sign displayed as you enter the chalet...8 good points on how to improve life in the ski park...for yourself and others. Take a minute to read what is written...all helpful hints aimed at putting a bigger grin (if that is possible) on your smiling face.

A Thank You to Dan (the Man) Rumbolt who stood out in the freezing rain(literally) and hung the Snowy Owl Banner in front of our chalet.
